

JUDGE SANDERS SAYS "ORDER IN COURT" FOURTEEN BILLS HAVE BEEN SIGNED

Will Put a Stop to Unnecessary
Noise and Confusion.

Then You Could Have Heard a Pin
Fall—A Number of Offenders
Up Today.

BOYS ARE HELD FOR LARCENY.

Police Judge D. L. Sanders wants order in his court and says he intends having it. There is much moving about and confusion in police court and the judge stated today that he had grown tired of it and wanted it stopped.

During the trial of one case this morning several were conspicuous in their movements. The confusion was such that Judge Sanders finally had to stop the proceedings and administer a sound reprimand.

"I want order in this court and intend to have it," the judge declared, "and if I cannot get it one way, will get it another. I want to run my court right and when the confusion becomes such that I can't do it, then I will adjourn until a calm has settled. Every prisoner brought before me is presumed to be innocent until proven otherwise, and there is no necessity for all this moving about, talking and actions on the part of many. Let the lawyers attend to the case, and when any one is wanted for a witness, he will be called and all others interested in the case will be given an equal opportunity to tell what they know."

Judge Sanders then settled down to note the effect his speech had, and a pin dropped could have been heard with remarkable clearness so still had the court room become.

One of the most important cases before the court was that against Fred Smith and Ernest Porter, colored, who are not yet out of short trousers. They stole a brass hub plate from the I. C. It weighed 19 pounds and they had to take turns about carrying it. Officer Tolbert, of the I. C., caught them with the plate and they were held over for petty larceny.

The case against Isom Scott and Tom Albritton, colored, for stealing a lot of hot wire from the rear of the Foreman Novelty Co. building on North Fourth street, was left open. The insulation was being burned off the wire and the negroes stole it by wrapping cloth about it to prevent being burned. They were detected while trying to sell the wire to a second-hand man while it was still warm.

Will Reynolds and Raffle McNeely, colored, were fined $20 and costs each for fighting.

Robert Harris, a young white boy, was fined $25 and costs for carrying a pistol concealed on his person.

Other cases were: Louis Vaughan, white, concealed weapons, continued; Elbert Massey, colored, $20 and costs for drawing a knife on Jonas McKnight. A bay horse, black horse and black horse mule which were caught roaming the streets, were ordered sold at 10 o'clock Friday morning at the Clark livery stables.

The Paducah Traction Co. has inaugurated another feature towards metropolitan methods. Every paper ticket given by passengers is now punched by the conductor, which insures it will not be used again. When the tickets are turned in by the employees they are destroyed. This prevents anyone from getting the tickets and reselling them.

And the Governor Has Eleven Awaiting Signature.

There Are Only Eight More Days of the Kentucky Legislature, Session.

ARE MANY OTHER MEASURES.

Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 5.—There are only eight days remaining of the Kentucky general assembly of 1906, and out of a total of 82 bills passed so far by the senate and 61 by the house 25 have safely run the gauntlet through both bodies, and gone to the governor for his approval or veto. He has attached his "John Hancock" to fourteen of these, the last being the house bill which placed the house of reform at Lexington under the control of the state board of penitentiary commissioners. The remaining 11 have just reached the executive office and have not as yet been considered.

The bills which have received the governor's approval and the majority of which, carrying emergency clauses, became laws with his signature, while probably not as a whole deserving of being classified as among the most important brought forward during the present session, are measures looking to the promotion of the welfare and protection of the rights of the citizenship of the commonwealth. They are as follows, being arranged as they were signed. Each will appear as a chapter in the bound Session Acts of 1906, and is given here as the chapter in which it will appear in the volume:

Chapter I. The Louisville "Sewer Enabling Act."

Chapter II. Regulating the fees for recording articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state.

Chapter III. The measure forming the new 32d judicial district.

Chapter IV. The measure forming the new 33d judicial district.

Chapter V. Providing that the state treasurer may select more than five banks as state depositories.

Chapter VI. Providing for a commissioner of the court of appeals.

Chapter VIII. Appropriating $12,500 for the benefit of the Eastern Kentucky Lunatic Asylum at Lexington.

Chapter IX. Appropriating $35,000 for improvements at the Western Insane Asylum at Hopkinsville.

Chapter X. The Croan Dog Tax bill.

Chapter XI. Providing the manner of forming an additional judicial district in counties having a circuit court of continuous session.

Chapter XII. Providing for an additional judicial district in Kenton county.

Chapter XIII. Dividing these two districts into criminal, common law and equity courts.

Chapter XIV. Placing the house of reform at Lexington under the control of the state board of penitentiary commissioners.

STOPS ANY ITCHING

Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles.—Paducah People Recommend It.

One application of Doan's Ointment stops any itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum—any skin eruption or skin itching. It is the cheapest remedy to use, because so little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Paducah testimony to prove it:

L. H. Fitzhugh, of 323 Jefferson street, dealer in typewriting machines, says: "I am only too pleased to recommend Doan's Ointment to anyone suffering from piles, either itching, bleeding or protruding. Any remedy which gives such effective relief as Doan's Ointment deserves the endorsement of the public. For eight or ten years I was a victim of this annoying trouble, and until I procured Doan's Ointment at Alvey & List's drug store and used it I never got any permanent relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Famous Home Burned.

Louisville, Ky., March 5.—Lansdowne, S. Thruston's palatial home at Glenview, four miles from this city, was destroyed by fire early. The loss is about $100,000. The building was insured for $20,000 and the contents for $3,000. The Ballard family narrowly escaped cremation.

Traveling Man Hurt.

Mayfield, Ky., March 5.—Mr. C. L. Parrott, traveling salesman for the May Panis Co., had his left arm broken below the elbow at Boaz. He was en route to Folsomdale and had boarded the local freight train to go as far as Boaz, and when the latter place was reached and while standing near the rear door of the passenger coach the other portion of the train suddenly backed up and caused Mr. Parrott to be thrown against a coal box.

For Killing His Father-in-Law.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 5.—The trial of James Courtney, charged with the wilful murder of his father-in-law, John C. Davie, is in progress, in the circuit court here, the larger part of the day being taken up in selecting a jury. This is one of the most important cases on the docket for this term. On September 19, 1905, Courtney shot and instantly killed Davie on the latter's farm four miles north of this city.

Courtney living on the same place. The weapon used was a shotgun. Courtney entered a plea, of not guilty, claiming self-defense. He says that Davie became angry with him and chased him for some distance with a cross cut saw. He finally ran into the house, and securing the gun, shot his father-in-law to death.

Death Near Fulton.

Fulton, Ky., March 5.—George W. Connor, aged 86, died at the home of his son, Sam Connor, near town. Thanksgiving day he broke his leg and has never since been able to leave his bed. ## LATE BASEBALL NEWS

Pat McAndrews has signed John Desmond, last year a slab artist with the Brownies of Hoptown. Desmond is a nephew of the celebrated St. Louis Vidocq and is a pitcher of great ability. * * * Larsen in a letter to Mr. McCarthy yesterday asks that he be granted one more chance in Cairo, saying that he would rather play here for fun than any other place at $150 per month. Andrew talks straight and he may yet be seen in a Cairo outfield.—Cairo Bulletin.

Holycross has offered to buy his release from Cairo and the offer has been accepted.

There is not a man on the Cairo team outside the pitching staff that is under 5 feet 10 inches up to 6 feet 2 inches in height and weighing from 175 to 200 pounds. It looks as if the team may be called the "Giant Rats."—Cairo Bulletin.

In Bert Hass, Paducah has one of the shiftest first basemen ever seen

A little weak with the stick, but my, how he can dig 'em out of the ground and cover territory. Hass was with Sydney, O., under Harry Eichler in 1902. At Anderson, Ind., with the Central, and Wapontka, O., in 1903. At Springfield and Dayton in 1905 finishing last season with the National Cash Register team of Dayton. Bert played six games in Cairo in 1902 with Sydney. Paducah will not feel the loss of Gilligan and is to be congratulated on securing Hass.—Cairo Bulletin.
